Peninsula Cantare is a community chorus of 50 singers based in Redwood City, California. The group performs classical choral music from all periods. Janice Gunderson is the director.

Peninsula Cantare was founded in 1971 as the Peninsula Master Chorale by Carl Sitton, who led the chorus for 26 years. The chorus has traveled to Europe three times, Japan, Australia and New Zealand, and the British Isles. In 2001 the chorus toured Germany, France, and Spain with the Northern California Chamber Chorale of Santa Rosa, California as the Northern California Chorale.

From its founding until 2003, the choir was associated with Cañada College. With the cancellation of all music programs at the college, the choir has incorporated as an independent nonprofit organization.

The Silicon Valley Gay Men's Chorus (SVGMC) was originally called the Liedermann Gay Men's Chorus of San Jose. A group of ten men formed the chorus on June 29, 1983 and sang its first full-length performance in June of 1984.

The MISSION of the Silicon Valley Gay Men's Chorus is to strive for musical excellence and provide a productive social fellowship for its members. We are an organization of diverse men dedicated to maintaining a high sense of personal and collective pride, promoting fellowship within the Silicon Valley gay and lesbian communities, and winning the respect and admiration of all people through musical performance.

Founded in 1996 by Daniel Hughes, The Choral Project has performed throughout Northern California as well as by invitation at the National Cathedral in Washington DC.

In July of 2004 the ensemble took 2nd place in the Mixed Choir competition at the 58th annual International Eisteddfod. Over 650 choirs from around the world auditioned and only nine were selected. The Choral Project also received rave reviews and standing ovations during their first international tour to Mexico and Costa Rica.

The VISION of The Choral Project is to heal our world through music and words. The MISSION of the ensemble is to connect to one another through choral theater, education and musical excellence.

Net proceeds from this evening's performance will be distributed between Habitat for Humanity - Silicon Valley and the Congregational Community Church of Sunnyvale_ to help fund it's "Next Hundred Years". Our "Next Hundred Years" projects have already begun with The Labyrinth Garden, The Disabled Rest Room, further beautification of the grounds and of course, whatever God places in our path.
